GUS BANNED FROM SOCHI OLYMPICS

"I don't care if it's the Winter Olympics, I'm here to RUN!"

- Gus SweetRight

An Olympic village security officer was quoted as saying "Never in my life have I ever seen anything like this and I've seen some stuff." Reports were flying around like the blue fur at the scene of the alleged incident. A representative for the Olympic committee said that Mr. SweetRight showed up demanding that he be allowed to run in the games and when he was informed that he would have to wait until the summer games he went into a fit about the matter. Gus's brother, Sketchy, was not involved in the scrum and when interviewed about it he asked where the nearest concessions stand was. Sochi officials have yet to determine if they are going to press charges as the only damage was to a fake potted tree. "We are See FLYING FUR, PAGE 10A

Three Peat!!!

The SweetRight Brothers just got word from the guys in Fargo that we will be going back to the famed Newman Outdoor field, home of the Fargo-Moorhead RedHawks. This will be their third year in a row visiting the team. When I gave Sketchy the good news he started running in circles screaming with excitement. Then he stopped in his tracks and asked if they were going to have the bacon-wrapped hot dogs when he came there. After several attempts by Sketchy, clubhouse manager Isaac Olson couldn't be reached for confirmation of the hot dogs. Make sure you are there when they come to town on July 18th.

MORRIS THE MINOR TO COMPETE IN BAJA RACE

In the offseason Morris the Minor has been doing his best to stay in shape. He has been spending a lot of time at local ballparks trying to improve his lap time around the warning track. Morris surprised everyone when he signed up for the Tecate SCORE San Felipe 250, which runs from Feb. 27- Mar. 2. Race officials called SweetRight headquarters to make sure this wasn't a joke as they have never had a non-race type vehicle sign up for the event. Morris said that his strategy for the grueling desert race was to stay hydrated. SCORE is still trying to figure out what class to place Morris in and hopes to have See REALLY BAD IDEA PAGE 8A
